Sir,

In reply to your docket No. 80/Ex-10 dated 3rd July 1901 enquiring why the toddy rental due by Seetharamayya, a toddy vend farmer for 1897-98, was allowed to fall into arrears, and requesting that the records connected with his case may be submitted, I have the honor to state that the records show that his sub-lessees having failed to pay the kists fully, they fell into arrears. On the 28th July 1898, he gave a Statement to the Amildar of Anekal, pleading his inability to pay the whole arrears of Rs. 326-15-3 at once, and requesting to be permitted to pay the arrears together with interest, by monthly instalments, at Rs. 50/- per month. But he did not make payments accordingly, and subsequently died. His son Venkataramaiyya has deposed before the Sahasildar of the Hosur Taluk, stating that his deceased father has bequeathed to him a debt of more than 12 thousand rupees while while the property is worth not even half that amount, which has been mortgaged to his creditors and praying therefore that the arrears may be treated as irrecoverable.

2. The file of Vernacular records is herewith submitted as requested.
